LONDON, September 18.

Copy of a Letter from BRITAIN, now in Confinement in Reading Goal, to a fecond NOBLE LORD.

To LORD .....

"My Lord,

AS the late Fire at Portſmouth Dock Yard engroſſes part of the public attention, I hope your Lordſhip will abſolve me from my promiſe of ſecrecy made to the Under Secretaries when down at Reading, and give me leave to lay the whole ſtate of the above Fire before the public; which I intend to do, in a ſeries of Letters to my friend in London, and to be publiſhed in the public Papers. I hope your Lordſhip will not deny me this requeſt, as it is but reaſonable that I ſhould have ſome hearing to clear myſelf from the falſe reports that have been propagated by the Miniſtry. They have declared, "that I want a ſum of money and my liberty out of priſon, which induced me to declare myſelf concerned in the above Fire." This you know, my Lord, is falſe. When I ſolicited a pardon, I was then at liberty in London; and in my letter to the Lord-Mayor, I informed him, "that I wanted no fee or reward whatever but his Majeſty's pardon." In the ſaid letter I owned being concerned in ſetting Fire to Portſmouth Dock Yard, the Writer of a treaſonable Letter ſent to the Lord Mayor, dated June 15, wherein "his ..... is expreſly called a Blockhead, his ..... and Dignity threatened to be in danger, and plainly told that the Government of the ..... Empire will be given to one more worthy of it, before July the 10th, 1772." I owned myſelf a Party concerned in attempting his .....'s life, and thoſe were the crimes I wanted a Pardon for. Now, his Majeſty's Pardon to me is only conditional; in the Gazette for July 31ſt it ſays, "His Majeſty is hereby pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to the Writer of the ſaid Letter for the offences therein mentioned, provided information ſhall be given to one of the Principal Secretaries of State, upon which the Parties concerned may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice.

"Now, my Lord, as I ſaid before, this pardon is only conditional; therefore, if my information is not ſufficient to bring the parties concerned to juſtice, why do you forgive me the other offences? If a poor Printer only prints the truth, you are ready to devour him. Pray, what will you do now? Nothing my Lord! You dare not! I do not crave your favour, but once more DARE you to bring me to a trial. You know you had information ſufficient, provided you had exerted yourſelf as a ..... of State ought to have done. It is not the poſt you are in that is to be deſpiſed for the neglect, but the man that fills that poſt. There is a Clerk in one of your offices, (as I told the Under Secretaries) who gave the French intelligence of your ſecret Councils; his name is ...., Will you deny now that you have not information enough to ſecure that Clerk? I do not doubt but you will. You know, my Lord, I deſired you to confront me with Count Guigne long before he left England; if I was in the wrong, why did not you do it? You have been called upon to publiſh my depoſition; why don't you? Your Secretaries were ſo careful to keep it from the Public, that they would not let the Mayor of Reading ſee the leaſt tittle of it. Nay, moreover, you have debarred me the uſe of pen, ink, and paper; and I do not doubt but as ſoon as you read this letter, but my keeper will have orders from you to ſhut me up in a dungeon; but if you do order it, the public will ſoon be appriſed on it; and then they may judge of your conduct as they think proper.

"Before I take my leave of your Lordſhip, permit me to return you my moſt humble thanks for the pains you have taken in propagating a report that I am infane; and as a proof of my gratitude, I aſſure your Lordſhip, that I will prove ſome of your dear Friends, Traitors to their King and Country; and the Public may be aſſured, that Tower-hill will be found a more neceſſary place, than Bedlam.

I am, my Lord,

Your Lordſhip's moſt obedient humble ſervant.

SEPTEMBER 20. Advices lately received by a Merchant in the City from Newfoundland inform, that ſeveral fall of frigates from Old Spain are cruizing upon the coaſts, to the great annoyance of the Britiſh trade.

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, September 7.

"Yeſterday the King of Pruſſia returned to Potzdam from Sileſia, where he has been ſince the 17th ult. reviewing his troops, &c. His Majeſty has lately given orders to remount all the regiments of Huſſars and Dragoons in his ſervice; for which purpoſe he has ordered every regiment to ſend two hundred men into Poland, this makes a body of upwards of four thouſand men. Since the laſt war, none of the regiments of horſe dragoons, &c. have been completely remounted, ſo that I hear the number of horſes wanted will be about ten thouſand.

"I am ſorry that I can tranſmit no agreeable accounts to you of the progreſs of the negotiations of peace between Ruſſia and the Porte. I am told, that the Court of Vienna does not at all reliſh the project of the Court of Peterſburgh, for rendering the Crim independent of the Porte for the future, and that they have made ſtrong repreſentations to the Czarina againſt ſuch an independency. What view they may have in this, or how far it may be their intereſt that the Crim ſhould remain under the power and influence of the Turks, I confeſs I have not penetration enough to diſcover. The King of Pruſſia is far from their way of thinking, and has refuſed to join with them in remonſtrating to the Empreſs of Ruſſia againſt that meaſure. In the mean while this difference of opinion retards the negotiation. I wiſh the Porte would make peace without Mediators, who for the moſt part ſerve more to embarraſs and retard than to accelerate, the ſalutary work of peace. The reduction of the Crim may perhaps induce her to take that ſtep. We long to know what impreſſion it has made at Conſtantinople."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Auguſt 16.

"Since the time that the Princes of the blood were forbid to appear at Court, they have reviewed their reſpective regiments, which buſineſs was formerly left to the Lieutenant Colonels. This afforded them an opportunity of ſeeing the Secretary of War, and as he is a creature of the Prince of Conde, that interview gave occaſion to a conference on matters of more importance than thoſe concerning their regiments; and though nothing certain can be ſaid on the ſubject of them, yet there are very good grounds to ſuſpect that this Miniſter, who is for peace and concord, has made ſome propoſals tending to a reconciliation, as within a week paſt there has been two meetings of the Princes; the firſt at the Duke of Orleans's, and the other at the Prince of Conde's. The day after this laſt meeting the Prince of Conde appeared at Compeigne at ten o'clock at night and had a conference with the King, which laſted about three quarters of an hour, after which he returned immediately to Chantilly, where all the Princes of the Blood met the next day.

"We are very apprehenſive that all this will come to nothing, as it is not likely that we ſhall ſee the preſent ſet of Courtiers diſgraced, for they ſeem rather more in favour than ever.

"P. S. It is rumoured in Paris, that the Duke de Choiſeul has obtained leave to return to Paris; if this be true, he has but one ſtep more to take, to go to Court, and return greater and more powerful than ever he was."

Tranſlation of a Letter from a German Officer at Vienna, who diſtinguiſhed himſelf by his bravery, fighting in Flanders againſt the French.

"The dawn of our future greatneſs begins to appear with infinite glory. Joſeph Benedict Auguſtus is determined his reign ſhall mark the æra of the Auguſtan age in the annals of the German Empire, and that he will rival the illuſtrious actions of his imperial anceſtors.

"The baſis of the brilliancy of the preſent reign is formed by the happy treaty juſt concluded between the two Empires and his Majeſty of Pruſſia; a treaty, French negotiation and intrigue could not interrupt. French policy, rather fineſſe, is now become inanimate; its nerve is broke; the power of bribery no longer exiſts; the miſery of poverty overclouds the glittering parade of Verſailles.

"The imperial Eagle will now feed upon the faded Lis of the haughty Bourbon; the ravaged provinces of the Empire will be reſtored to the houſe of Auſtria, and her ſtandard will be again planted upon the rampart of Dunkirk, and the Citadel of Strafburg.

"The operations of next ſummer's campaign are already formed; and the imperial Thereſa will, a ſecond time, like a Semiramis, ride at the head of the Auſtrian armies, and will reſign to her ſon, Joſeph Benedict Auguſtus, the father of his country, the idol of his ſubjects, and the guardian of the liberties of Germany, the imperial ſtandard, which will march to the banks of the Rhine, preceded by thirty thouſand Pruſſian grenadiers, eſcorted by the united armies of Auſtria, with a rear-guard of fifty thouſand Ruſſians; a military proceſſion fit to accompany ſuch a royal banner.

"You will ſee that the ambition of our German Auguſtus is different from that of the haughty Louis; not to plunder, burn, and maſſacre, but to conquer tyranny, and reſtore the freedom and independency of the German Empire."

QUEBEC, October 10.

On Thurſday, the 26th of September laſt, between the Hours of four and five in the Evening, happened the following extraordinary Accident, viz.

Upon the Arrival of a young Man, in a Caleche, at one Joſeph Renaud's Door, in the Pariſh of St. Peters, South-River, the Earth opened, ſwallowed up, and buried him under its Maſs, together with the Carriage and two Horſes. There were in the Houſe a Woman, two Girls, and a young Lad, the latter perceiving this extraordinary Accident, cried out, Let us ſave ourſelves, at the ſame Time going out of the Houſe to make his Eſcape, when he ſaw the Earth again opening about eighteen Feet wide, which obliged him to retire, but the Woman, who likewiſe endeavoured to ſave herſelf, was ſwallowed up; the Lad was returning into the Houſe where the Girls had remained, in the greateſt Conſternation and Fright, when all on a ſudden it fell down, was carried to about the Diſtance of an Acre and an Half from where it ſtood, and buried in the River, under an enormous Maſs of Land, which prevents any Part of it being ſeen except the End of one of the Rafters; notwithſtanding the Lad was only found up to his Shoulders in the Earth, and whoſe doleful Cries brought ſome People to his Aſſiſtance, who had almoſt dug him out, when the Barn at a greater Diſtance than the Houſe, fell, and was likewiſe ſwallowed up in the Abyſs, this obliged the People to leave the Lad, who continued calling for their Aſſiſtance; but a little Time after, notwithſtanding the Danger, they returned and ſaved him.

This Immerſion has formed a Bank at leaſt three Acres broad, the Height of which exceeds the Shore by about fifteen Feet; it has ſhut up the Channel of the River in ſuch a Manner, that the Waters had not ceaſed to re-flow the 29th, and left it quite dry below the Bank.

It is a difficult Matter to diſcover the Cauſe of ſo extraordinary a falling, as there was not the leaſt Sign of an Earthquake, and as it was a Hill, the Declivity of which to the River was very gentle: Yet, as the Land formed a ſmall Creek, againſt which the Waters ſtruck, and had cut a very deep Channel therein, it is to be preſumed, that having by Degrees waſhed away the Earth, which is of a very ſoft Clay, it had, in Courſe of Time, made a ſubteraneous Paſſage: This appears the more probable, as in the Place where the Land ſunk, there appeared a deep Pit, about ſixty Feet perpendicular.

It is to be obſerved that ſome Days before this Accident, the Cows ſtood [illegible] of the Houſe to have ſunk, and then ſtood [illegible] fallen down.

On the whole, we leave to the Conſideration of Perſons of better Judgment, to give ſome more natural Reaſons for the above fatal Event.

BOSTON, October 21.

His Excellency the Governor, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Council, has been pleaſed to appoint Thurſday the 21ſt of November next, to be obſerved as a Day of public Thankſgiving throughout this Province.

We hear Lord William Campbell is expected here from Halifax, in the Gibraltar Man of War.

OCTOBER 24. We hear that Captain Preſton, who was lately juſtified by the Laws of his Country, for killing ſome Rioters on the 5th of March, 1770, has had a ſtill further Compenſation from his Sovereign, for his Services. It is ſaid, that the King ever willing to Reward thoſe who promote the Intereſt of the Crown, has conferred on this Captain 500l. Sterling, to recruit him in what he expended, and alſo a Penſion of 200l. per ann. "Vengeance is mine ſaith the Lord, I will repay.

It has been currently reported ſince the arrival of Capt. Hall, from London, that the Governor of this Province has received a freſh Order from Lord Hillſborough, peremptorily to inſiſt upon a former Inſtruction requiring him not to give his Aſſent to any Tax Bill, and ſome ſay, any Bill at all, until the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms are exempted from paying a certain Proportion for the Support of this Government.

OCTOBER 31. Captain Montreſor arrived in Town from New-York on Sunday Se'nnight, with Orders to make the neceſſary Repairs and Alterations at Caſtle-William. We are informed that as the Seaſon is ſo far advanced, nothing more is intended before the Spring than rebuilding one of the Wharves, and ſecuring the Works againſt any Damage from Storms in the Winter.

NOVEMBER 4. Wedneſday laſt arrived here the Mermaid, of 28 Guns, Captain Thompſon, from the Iſland St. John's, in whom came the Lady of Governor Patterſon of that Iſland.

Alſo, the Lizard, of 28 Guns, Capt. C. Inglis, from Portſmouth in England, to join the other Ships under the Command of Admiral Montagu; in whom came Lieut. Stanton, of the 14th Regiment, and Samuel Sturdwick, Eſq; with his Lady, who are going to North-Carolina.

We don't learn any Diſpatches to the ſeveral Governments on this Continent, as has been reported, came in the above Ship. The Arethuſa Frigate, was to ſail for this Place ſoon after the Lizard.

There is a Report that John Williams, Eſq; Inſpector-General of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, was to be appointed one of the Board of Commiſſioners, in the Room of John Robinſon, Eſq; who is to be provided for in Wales.

We are informed by ſeveral Gentlemen of Character lately arrived from London, that People of all Ranks are generally diſguſted with the preſent Adminiſtration; that three out of four feel for America; and that could it be decided by the People, we ſhould ſoon have our Privileges reſtored, and the preſent tyrannical Miniſters rewarded according to their Merit.

PROVIDENCE, (Rhode-Iſland) October 19.

The Spaniſh Regiſter Ship that arrived off Block-Iſland laſt Week in Diſtreſs, has put into New-London to refit; and on Monday laſt the Beaver Man of War ſailed from Boſton to protect her.

NEW-YORK, October 24.

Friday the 18th Inſtant, was held at the Queen's-Head Tavern in New-York, a Grand Lodge of the moſt ancient and honourable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Maſons; when a Commiſſion from the Right Honourable Lord Blaney, Grand Maſter of England, appointing Sir John Johnſon, Bart. Grand Maſter of Maſons for the Province of New-York, was preſented to George Harriſon, Eſq; then Grand Maſter; and received with the general Approbation of the Brethren. After the Commiſſion was read, he was immediately in due Form inveſted with the Badges of that important Office, and placed in the Chair, agreeable to the Rites and Uſages practiſed upon ſuch ſolemn Occaſions, by that reſpectable and Catholic Society. In theſe Ceremonies he was aſſiſted by the Right Honourable Lord Drummond, and Colonel Johnſon. After the Inſtalment was over, an elegant Entertainment was given to all the Members, and ſeveral other Gentlemen, Maſons, who had been permitted to be preſent. The Evening was concluded with that Feſtivity and Mirth which are the never failing Attendants upon Friendſhip and good Cheer.

The Virginia Papers contain a Number of Addreſſes that have been preſented to his Excellency the Earl of Dunmore, congratulating his Lordſhip on his Arrival to the Government,---In the Anſwer to one of the Addreſſes his Lordſhip ſays:

"Though I muſt acknowledge the Deſire I had of remaining in New-York, from the ſincere Affection I had conceived, and ever ſhall retain, for a Province, the People whereof had manifeſted ſo earneſt an Inclination to make my Adminiſtration eaſy to me, and my Reſidence among them agreeable; I ſhall, nevertheleſs, exert my utmoſt Abilities to conciliate the Affection of the Colony which I now have the Honour to preſide over."

OCTOBER 28. Monday Night laſt was married, Lieutenant John Plenderleith, of the Royal Artillery, to Miſs Jennit Smith, Daughter of the Honourable William Smith, Eſq; a young Lady endowed with all the Accompliſhments requiſite to render the Marriage State happy.

The Brigantine Africa, Capt. The ſubſcriber having therefore, by her friends, obtained from the ſaid truſtees, proper deeds for the ſaid ſix lots of land, and has got them transferred to her; ſhe now offers them for ſale by private contract. Two of the ſaid lots are very valuable, the one being on the bay near the centre, and the other adjoining to the back of it, a little improved; the other four are in the back of the town, but all corner lots, and near the court-houſe.—Any perſon or perſons who may have better or prior claims to the ſaid lots, have this opportunity given them to levy the ſame; thoſe who may incline to purchaſe, may ſee the land and the titles, by applying to Mr. JOSEPH DUBOURDIEU, in George-Town, or to me at Mr. Hugh Swinton's in Charles-Town.
